

1. GFAA Gallery - Gainesville Fine Arts Association Contact: Katy Lemle 1314 South Main Street 352-328-5027

Presents 2 local art exhibitions this month The Art of Watercolor & Flow. Local art for sale! Exhibitions run from March 26 through April 18. Smaller artwork & crafts are available for sale in our updated Gift Shop. Artist and Paton Memberships available! Visit gainesvillefinearts.org Image by Melody Lozano.

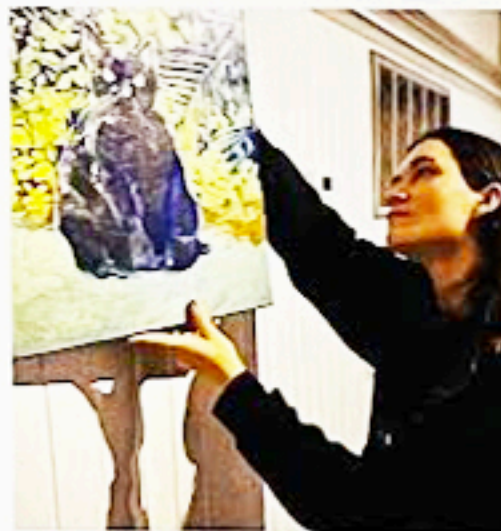

2. Bingo Deli & Pub: 619 S Main St. Unit 14 (across from Heartwood sound stage) 352-451-4470

Gainesville born, Terrence Ho. Sculpture degree from Yale, A world traveler, playing guitar and singing on the streets. Teacher of art and music, Chicago, Thailand, Hsinchu, Mexico, UAE, Greece, Malaysia, Türkiye, and Oman. He's back home, drawing, loves languages and lives with his wife Qianqian.

3. Civic Media Center: 433 S Main St, Gainesville, FL, Civic Media Center and Stetson Kennedy Library Inc. Founded on October 1993. Is an alternative library and Nonprofit grassroots organizing, activism, and public awareness space.

coordinators@civicmediacenter.org

4. The Hippodrome Theater Art Gallery: 25 Se. 2nd. PL. (352)-372-4477

Proudly presents Julia Bush from March 10-April 1st. Julia, another Gainesville born artist. Is currently studying Computer Science at UF and volunteers at UF Health Arts in Medicine. She has been involved at the Hippodrome Theater as a performer as well. See her art works of the things she loves.

5. Black C Art: 201 Se. 2nd Pl. UNFINISHED STORIES by Lilyana Dvoryanova!

Join us for the closing reception of Unfinished Stories. From Bulgaria to Gainesville, whispers of untold tales unfold through brushstrokes and ink. Experience Lilyana's dreamlike world with illustrations and paintings born from her month-long residency at Black C Art. Prints are available. Visit us at <http://www.blackcproduction.com>

6. Sweetwater Print Cooperative, 117 S. Main St.

Sweetwater Print Coop Presents "Black, White and Color", sculpture, drawings and prints by Joanna Clark. Opening is 7-9 pm on Friday, March 28. Show runs through Tuesday, May 22 and may be seen after the opening by calling 352 514-3838.

7. The Bull, 18 Sw. 1st Ave.

We are showcasing Artis, Farol N. Thomson and his show Gainesville: Out & About. Retired and loving the challenges of photography. "I am really enjoying the results of HDR imaging and the post-processing filters that are available, no specialties: everything is fair game".

8. City Church Gainesville, Joel Parker 14 S. Main St., 32601, 843-576-9377

Welcome's Allison Burch and her work "Fragments to Flourish ". Allison Burch explores the resilient life growing through the cracks of the built environment." 7pm-9pm. Friday 3/28.

9. The SL8 Gallery of ART 10 E. University Ave. "The SL8 is an "Art Bar" which shows an ever-changing kaleidoscope of art, film, food and drinks, (between "Death or Glory" and "Anatomic Piercing", four doors East of Pop-A-Top). the North Side of Univ. Ave. please call 352-226-2060 thesl8gallery@gmail.com or check our Instagram page at www.instagram.com/thesl8gallery"

10. Top Secret Space, 10 N. Main St.

"Wake Up" is the latest group show by "Oldhead" in the Top Secret Gallery at 10 N Main St. A variety of different mediums. From many different artists. Join us from 7pm-10pm. Friday 3/28 and from 6-10 on Saturday 3/29.

11. Artisans' Guild Gallery 224 NW 2nd Avenue Hours are: 11:00am to 6:00 pm Daily

www.artisansguildgallery.com Phone: 352-378-1383
Cindy Hirt, "Really Mixed Media," incorporating a diverse range of signature design elements. Feature's weaving under glass, verdigris copper, copper-enameled 3D die forms, and molds of real fish and shells. Live music with "Sound Weavers" and more.
www.artisansguildgallery.com Phone: 352-378-1383

12) Limelight, Salon, Gallery & Stage. 4908 NW 34th BLVD STE 11

Music by Jordan Alexander Key! Monologues performed by Jeff, Liana, and Seth Featured Artist is Avery Augspurg!
Poetry Open Mic too. limelightsalongallery.com (866)309-7250